第十七届北京分析测试学术报告会暨展览会 THE 17TH BEIJING CONFERENCE AND EXHIBITION ON INSTRUMENTAL ANALYSIS

Warm Congratulations on the Success of BCEIA 2017 in Beijing

Hi, Participants and Exhibitors:

On October 13, 2017, the 17th Beijing Conference and Exhibition on Instrumental Analysis (BCEIA 2017) Sponsored by China Association for Instrumental Analysis (CAIA) was successfully conducted at The China National Convention Center in Beijing in view of both academically and business-showcasing-based. Vice Minister Huang Wei of Science and Technology, Prof. Cheng Jinpei, Former Vice Minister of Science and Technology, Academician of Chinese Academy of Sciences as well more other officials from the Ministry of Science and Technology paid visits to the event and highly appreciated during the period.

BCEIA2017 has reached a new record in the number of exhibitors and booths. The exhibition covers an area of 26,000 square meters including 1,100 standard booths, with 500 exhibitors in the event. Among them, 340 domestic exhibitors, 160 overseas and regions from Hong Kong and Taiwan, showcased the new instrument and equipment of 3,000 international (domestic) technologies. There are 25,547 registered professionals (excluding exhibitor staff), and 66,370 visitors including scholars, spectators, exhibitors and staff members etc..

BCEIA2019 is still to be held at the China National Convention Center in Beijing in late October 2019, while will be the season to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the People's Republic of China. The exhibition area is estimated to be 36,000 square meters and will be 10,000 square meters more than that of BCEIA 2017. Over 800 exhibitors are expected.

Welcome anyone of the sector to enroll their participation in time, the booth rental fare is expected to be equal to that of BCEIA2017. Detailed quotation and booth map will be released in August 2018, and the exhibition call meeting will be held in Beijing and Shanghai respectively.

Thank you again to all the BCEIA attendees, exhibitors, industry practitioners and friends interested in the BCEIA event. Welcome you all to the BCEIA 2019
