Annual Laboratory Technology Suppliers Conference

January 15th & 16th 2018

Billesley Manor Hotel, near Strafford on Avon, B49 6NF

The Gambica laboratory technology suppliers conference has been established for 15 years and continues to grow with around 60 senior executives attending the 2017 conference.

High quality speakers and sessions combined with excellent networking opportunities, in superb surroundings, make this the one event senior executives from across the industry attend.

From the 2017 conference

"Very good standard of speakers - the guys from Hack Science were particularly refreshing".

"All very professional, congratulations on great event"

The overall satisfaction for the conference was rated an average 8/10

80% of attendees said they would attend in 2018.
